743, 790, 805

I have a cancellation of hearing notice pursuant to previous action by the body this morning with respect to LB 805. Senator Schrock would move to place LB 642 on General File notwithstanding the action of the Revenue Committee. That will be laid over. Senator Wehrbein would move to withdraw LB 805. That will be laid over. Amendments to be printed; Senator Landis to LB 790, Senator Redfield to LB 175, and Senator Brown to LB 303. (Legislative Journal pages 830-834.)

Mr. President, a unanimous consent request, Senator Wehrbein would like to request that the Appropriations Committee meet in Room 1510 for their hearings tomorrow on March 13 instead of their traditional Room 1003.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Mr. Clerk. No objections, so ordered.

CLERK: And, Mr. President, some adds; Senator Cunningham to add his name to LB 39, Senator Johnson to LB 332, Senator Mines to withdraw his name from LB 726, Senator Mines to add to LB 111, Senator Cudaback to LB 743, Senator Mossey to LB 332, Senator Quandahl LB 643. (Legislative Journal pages 835-835.)

Mr. President, priority motion, Senator Mines would move to adjourn until Thursday morning, 9:00 a.m.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Before going on, Mister...Speaker Bromm asked me to let him speak, and he may do so now. Speaker Bromm.

SPEAKER BROMM: Thank you, Mr. President. Just to give the body a little heads up on the next couple of days so you know how to plan a little bit. Tomorrow we will plan to continue on senator priority bills. There are several on the agenda and two or three more that will appear on the agenda for tomorrow that are...that have been out long enough to appear. I don't think we'll get to committee priority bills tomorrow as I had indicated a day or two ago. Friday, we have about five to six hours of Final Reading that's available now, so Friday we'll just do Final Reading for the morning. And then next week, we'll try to intersperse some committee priority bills at some point, but just to give you an idea of the next couple of days.
